

R.R.S. Neb. § 42-931 (2011) - Foreign harassment protection order; enforcement

A valid foreign protection order related to domestic or family abuse issued by a tribunal of another state, tribe, or territory shall be accorded full faith and credit by the courts of this state and enforced pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act.

Nebraska is a mandatory Public Law 280 state that has retroceded criminal jurisdiction back to the Winnebago and Omaha Reservations.
